
Unity
Ninth Tradition

Tradition 9 (Long form) - Each A.A. group needs the least possible organization. Rotating leadership is the best. The small group may elect its secretary, the large group its rotating committee, and the groups of a large metropolitan area their central or intergroup committee, which often employs a full-time secretary.

RECOVERY

Although there are very few physical meetings due to the COVID 19 epidemic Central service is maintaining a list of Zoom Meetings and Conference call meetings as well as providing links to other recovery information that may be accessed at <http://www.rhodeisland-aa.org/node/219>

The RI Central Service Office has a list of In-Person meetings available upon request. However, we cannot guarantee that these meetings are following the COVID 19 guidelines, so it is understood that you attend these meetings at your own risk. If you would like information on Face to Face meetings, please contact the Office during regular business hours.

We are also maintaining a telephone list of contact for those unable to access a computer
Call Central Service at 401-438-8860 for more info

RI Central Service is in the process of up-dating our 12-STEP LIST. Anyone willing to be added to the list should contact their Group Secretary or call Central Service.
