NOTICES FROM CENTRAL SERVICE

Your RI Central Service Office is taking to keep everyone safe and connected during this unprecedented time. We will do our best to keep the office open and running. We have put in measures such as blocking off access to the book room and will be waiting on costumers so there is less traffic in the office. We continue to take orders over the phone for pick up and we are also willing to ship literature as requested.

We are continually bringing up to date the RI Central Service Website with the most current information available to us. If your group has been temporarily suspended and your meeting is still listed please call the office so we can make the necessary revisions to the meeting guide

Some groups have chosen to have “Virtual Meetings” via skype, zoom, conference calls, and you can find a list of these options including all the information needed to join in on these meetings by accessing the Online Meeting Options and Alternatives menu on our website.

If your group would like to be added to this directory, please contact the office.

We need volunteers to help with our monthly mailing - takes less than one hour -
The next mailing will take place at Central Service on Wed., April 22nd at 9AM

CHANGES

EVERYTHING

Just a note from Your Central Service Office

The office has been in a whirlwind for the past several weeks. Today I know that experience and resources are available to support us in getting through this ever-changing environment. At a local level, we are doing our best to serve and unify our AA community. I've learned this week that AA is not a place, it is a spirit, a resilience, a community that reaches beyond the rooms we meet in or the area we serve. A special note to those groups who are continuing to hold a "physical" meeting. We want to encourage you to follow the less than 10-person policy for gatherings and to practice social distancing as mandated by our state. The sobriety, safety and wellbeing of our community is our top priority.

The next task is to reorganize the website for better sort and search ability. To develop best practices for maintaining anonymity and a seventh tradition. Finally, to get that information to all who want it. I have seen a different side of our fellowship in the last few days. Our time across the table from one another may have been limited in our areas, for some of us suspended, however, the spirit of unity is shining bright. The members of this committee want to ensure you that we are here as a resource, willing to share the work we have done, share any lessons learned, and at the very least express that we are in this together.

Stay Well,

Yours in Service,

Sue C.

Office Manager, RI Central Service
